

CRISIS APPROACHING

England and the United States
May Soon Clash.

THE VENEZUELAN DISPUTE.

Monroe Doctrine May Soon Be Put to a Test—England Sends an Ultimatum to Venezuela—Venezuela's Bold Stand. She Refuses a Previous Demand Made by the British Government.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The danger of trouble between the United States and Great Britain is probably more imminent than at any time since the presentation of the Alabama claims. The English sentiment is so strongly opposed to Venezuela that it would be politically inexpedient for the Salisbury government to yield to the United States if this government should remain firm, while the administration, seeking to erase the stain of former foreign subservience, may be forced into the aggressive action which Mr. Cleveland hoped to avert, though getting credit for unusual firmness in his statement that encroachments on American territory would be regarded as an act unfriendly to the United States.

That does not necessarily mean that this government will resist an attempt to force reparation from Venezuela. The Corinto incident, where British marines landed upon American territory, may be used as a precedent for the administration to permit British encroachments unless there should be a permanent seizure of territory.

There is also the possibility that England, by the St. James Gazette announcement, is seeking to see how much in earnest the United States is—to test the sentiment of this government.

ENGLAND'S ULTIMATUM.

Demand for Reparation From Venezuela For the Uruguayan Incident.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—The St. James Gazette says:

"The Marquis of Salisbury has sent an ultimatum to President Crespo which not only sets out the demands of the British government for reparation on account of the arrest of the deputation and inspectors of police at Uruguay, but it also states the terms upon which Great Britain will definitely determine the boundary dispute with that republic. The ultimatum is now en route to President Crespo, if it is not already delivered to him."

"This final action was decided upon by the Marquis of Salisbury and Mr. Chamberlain before the former's recent holiday in France. Both the Marquis of Salisbury and Mr. Chamberlain are in perfect agreement as to the necessity of ending the frontier dispute, even if Venezuela has to be brought to terms by methods which are the most effective in reaching an understanding with South American republics. The instructions to station marines on the frontier are to be associated in the dispute only in the sense that guns will be necessary to overcome the Venezuelans, who are not likely to pay attention to President Crespo and the government of Caracas, whatever agreement the latter may make with Great Britain after a study of the Marquis of Salisbury's message."

"The Gazette also publishes a letter, signed 'Hugh Watt,' deploring the retrograde condition of British Guiana, due, it is claimed, to the attempts to bolster up the decaying sugar cane industry, but predicting that Mr. Chamberlain's policy will revive its industrial prospects."

The Westminster Gazette, commenting upon a dispatch to The Times from New York, declaring that a joint refusal of the European powers to accept the Alon doctrine is believed to be in the Marquis of Salisbury's mind, says: "There is no such thing. The Monroe doctrine is a matter entirely between the old country and the United States, and if the time ever comes for Great Britain to take sides on the subject, we shall stand with the Americans, and not against them."

VENEZUELA'S BOLD STAND.

She Relused a Previous Demand, Which Is Repeated in Present Ultimatum.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The answer of Venezuela to the British ultimatum appears to be clearly foreshadowed in an official statement from the Venezuelan minister of foreign relations. It states with positiveness the attitude and policy of Venezuela upon the exact subjects covered in the ultimatum and in Minister Chamberlain's letter to the governor of British Guiana. It discloses that the present ultimatum is a repetition of a demand made by Great Britain in November last. Venezuela promptly rejected the demand and refused to give the assurances Great Britain asked. The refusal was accompanied by a restatement of all Venezuelan claims.

The former difficulty arose over the felling of timber by Venezuelan soldiers near Cayana, on land claimed by England. It was demanded that Venezuela promise to permit no more of her soldiers to cross the river. Compliance would be recognition of the English claim to this territory, and the demand was refused.

On the question of building the military road proposed by Mr. Chamberlain, the Venezuelan statement says that the "invading neighbors" can not make another step further on the Venezuelan side of the line, "without at once provoking a collision."

President Crespo is at present at a summer resort, and the vice president is acting as president. The Venezuela congress will not convene until next February. It happens also that a cabinet complication occurred 10 days ago. Four of the cabinet, including Dr. Pardo, minister of foreign affairs, resigned, and President Crespo has not yet named their successors.

PREVAILING DROUGHT.

It Is the Most Prolonged Ever Known in the United States.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Reports received at the weather bureau indicate that the present drought is one of the severest, most prolonged and general known in the United States since the bureau's organization. There are a few places which show an exception to the general condition, but in no large section of the country, unless, perhaps, in the northwest and far west does there appear to have been a soaking rain for the past two months or more. Where there has been exceptional precipitation it has been confined to small areas. In some parts of the country the drought began in the latter part of July, but in most of the sections it did not become markedly pronounced until in August.

The entire Atlantic coast with few exceptions, such as Charleston, S. C., and Augusta, Ga., shows a deficiency below the normal rainfall since the first of August amounting in some instances to almost half of the average precipitation. The Ohio and Mississippi valley report similar conditions, as does a part of the Pacific coast. The great lake region, upon the whole, has fared better than other sections of the country east of the Mississippi. In some parts of the Rocky mountain region, as in Colorado, Wyoming, Utah and Nevada there have been excessive rainfalls during this period, and along the Pacific coast from Olympia to San Francisco there were good rains in September as there have been in places since then in that section. Farther east, Fort Scott, Ark., Indianapolis and St. Paul, are the centers of districts where the drought was broken in September. There have been good rains also in parts of Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri and Kansas.

The greatest complaints come from West Virginia, Kentucky and western Pennsylvania. Fortunately in most parts of the country, the drought did not set in until after the principal crops were matured, consequently the effect has not been so disastrous as it would have been if it had begun earlier. In some places it has had a slight effect on the planting of winter wheat, and complaints come from many quarters of the inconvenience of securing water for domestic and stock purposes, many small streams, stock ponds, springs and wells having become dry. Pastures have been injured in many states. It is also noticeable that there has been an increase of typhoid fever over the normal in many of the sections where the drought is severe.

DOUBLE MURDER.

Two Young Farmers Killed by One of Their Neighbors.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 21.—A double murder is reported from Bolivar, a small place near Blairsville intersection, Pa. According to the story, two young farmers, brothers-in-law, were shot and killed by P. Kingsland, a wealthy farmer of that neighborhood.

It is said the young men, Albert Cable and James Brett, had a grudge against Kingsland's son, and while under the influence of liquor went to Kingsland's house yesterday evening. Only the son's wife and the old man were at home. The intruders insulted the woman, and were ordered from the house by Kingsland, who, upon their refusal to leave, took down his shotgun and killed both men.

Three Prisoners Escape.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Oct. 21.—Three prisoners, two of them express robbers, assaulted Assistant Jailor Al Cree Saturday night and escaped. They were Tom McCarthy, a trusty; A. J. Gray and J. G. Stuart, the last two being held for the robbery of a Wells-Fargo express stage near Grassy last April, when $15,000 was secured. The men took guns, ammunition and a change of clothing. Then they entered the office and marched the men through to a cell and locked them in. As they left they looked the front door, gaining an hour's start before the sheriff heard of their escape. Jailor Cree is reported to be dying.

Mining Village Wiped Out by Fire.

HAZELTON, Pa., Oct. 21.—The mining village, No. 8 Stockton, was practically wiped out by fire Saturday night. Shortly after midnight, flames were discovered in the house of Mrs. Michael McGlory. There was a high wind blowing at the time and before the fire was under control 12 dwellings had been destroyed. The properties were owned by the Stockton Coal company and occupied by these families: Thomas Burgess, Patrick Somers, Samuel Mavey, John Taylor, John Mulhern, Thomas Miller, G. W. Miller, Jacob Bowman, Adam Kluck, Patrick Conagun and Mrs. McGlory. The loss is $18,000.

White Cap Warning.

KENTON, O., Oct. 21.—Joel Thomas, an old and respected citizen living just north of Kenton, has received a White Cap notice, ordering him to leave this county at once, alleging that he owed all his neighbors and would not pay his debts. People are very indignant and will make it lively for the White Caps should they be apprehended.

Apple Blossoms in the Fall.

PORT JEFFERSON, L. I., Oct. 21.—An old apple tree on the place owned by Peter Skidmore, which has almost a full crop of apples, has surprised the neighborhood by coming out in spring attire, and is also full of blossoms.

AFFAIRS IN COREA.

Russia Protests Against the Present Administration.

AN ULTIMATUM WILL FOLLOW.

News of the Death of the Queen Confirmed by the Korean Government—The Japanese Said to Be Her Murderers—Foreign Powers Will Demand the Punishment of the Murderers.

YOKOHAMA, Oct. 21.—Newspaper advices received from Seoul say that the Korean government confirms the news of the queen's death.

It is reported that the Russian minister has protested against the administration of the state of affairs in Korea by the Tai-Won-Kun, the former of the king, and has demanded that the king should administer affairs. It is believed that if the protest is ignored an ultimatum will follow.

The Nichisimbun (newspaper) says that the Japanese minister, Miura, and other officials of the Japanese legation are indicted as the principal fomenters of the disturbance, the Japanese soldiers having acted on Minister Miura's orders against the views of the Japanese advisers to the Korean government who declared that Minister Miura's action would lead to serious international complications.

Orders have been given that over 40 Japanese residents of Seoul should be deported.

A Tokio journal, The Asahi, says that Minister Miura and the Japanese officials are returning to Japan under an escort of gendarmes. The foreign representatives at Seoul are stated to have demanded protection for their respective legations. All of them agree in denouncing the Japanese as the murderers of the queen.

New York World's Dispatches.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—A World dispatch from Tokio, Japan, says: Lieutenant General Miura, Japan's deposed minister to Korea, and a few attaches of the Japanese legation at Seoul, instigated the plot to kill the Korean queen, it is now believed. Probably she was assassinated by Japanese Seoul under the direct orders of the Tai-Won-Kun.

The imperial cabinet here is resolved to punish the guilty, regardless of rank. Meanwhile the efforts of certain diplomats to implicate Japan in the attack continues, although the government at Tokio was kept utterly ignorant of it for several days by the craftiness of General Miura.

Count Okuma can not return to the cabinet yet.

ONE HUNDRED BUILDINGS BURNED.

Seven Hundred People Rendered Homeless and Are Now Destitute.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 21.—Fire broke out about 1 o'clock Sunday morning in Algiers, and before the flames were finally snuffed destroyed about 100 small buildings and about 30 more prehistoric structures, including the courthouse and a number of handsome residences. The fire started at the corner of Bernuda and Morgan streets and swept in a southwesterly direction. The burned section is bounded by Morgan, Alexander, Laverne and Bonney streets. It is estimated that 700 persons are rendered homeless.

Relief measures were started at once for the benefit of the destitute. The building used as a police court and jail in Algiers was constructed about the year of 1813 by the Laverne for a residence, the greater portion of the town then being their plantation home. All the records of the Fifth district (Algiers) were consumed in the building. The loss by the fire will not probably exceed $150,000. Insurance is light.

MOTHER AND SON KILLED.

Another Son Fatally Injured and the Father Badly Hurt.

DAVIS, W. Va., Oct. 21.—The particulars have reached here of a shocking fatal accident on Shaffer's mountain, in Randolph county. Marion H. Carr, accompanied by his wife and two sons, went into the mountain in search of ginseng, building a camp at night, which they covered with slabs.

Between 4 and 5 o'clock in the morning, a big maple tree broke and fell on the rude cabin. Mrs. Carr and her son, George, were killed instantly. The other son, Josse, was fatally injured, and the father was badly hurt. A fire in the cabin ignited some brush and the bodies would have been roasted but for the presence of mind of Marion Carr, who succeeded in extinguishing the flames, adding painful burns to his other injuries.

TURNED THE TRICK.

Five Bad Dollars Given a Sharper For a Bogus Bill.

CIRCLEVILLE, O., Oct. 21.—In 23 banks there is usually an accumulation of counterfeit coins, and with them a local banker turned a unique trick on a sharper a few days since. A stranger rushed into the bank, saying: "Change this five-dollar bill quick; I want to catch the train."

The banker looked at the bill a moment, hesitated, then walked back and returned, handed the sharper five counterfeit dollars. The sharper looked at them a moment, a sickly smile played over his face, he winked, and hurried out of the bank. It is needless to say the bill was counterfeit.

It is reported that the British colony of Guleana is in a bad way, and that her salvation lies in exploiting the gold fields which are in the disputed area.

CUBAN SYMPATHIZERS.

A Public Meeting to Be Held in Rochester, New York.

ROCHESTER, Oct. 21.—Rochester sympathizers with the Cuban patriots are planning to hold a public meeting for the purpose of creating more interest in the cause of the down-trodden Cubans. They have been offered the use of the city hall for their massmeeting. Ex-Ambassador James P. Tammity of this city is one of the foremost sympathizers of the Cubans. He has large financial interests in the island and is well acquainted with the country.

To an Associated Press reporter the ex-ambassador said: "The natives of the island are more oppressed than were our forefathers under the tyranny of Great Britain. Why, even in times of peace the collectors who are sent from Spain to extort additional taxes from the already overburdened people may take possession of a Cuban's house and make it their headquarters during their stay. Even the wives and daughters of these so-called insurgents are not safe from the presence of these Spanish nobles and Haidagos. In Cuba there is absolutely no punishment for a Spaniard. He may do what he likes."

"Here, almost within a stone's throw of us, figuratively speaking, are weak people, down-trodden under the heel of a rotten, tottering monarchy, few in numbers, it is true, but brave as lions for all that."

"The other day," continued Mr. Tammity, "every piece of cane on our plantation was burned to prevent the Spanish intendant the crop. I would rather see them burned a thousand times than furnish an ounce of food for a Spaniard's stomach."

According to Mr. Tammity, a movement has been started to form a stock company to have for its object the fitting out of merchantmen as privateers to cruise in Cuban waters. Another object of this company will be to furnish Cuban patriots with arms and ammunition. Mr. Tammity thinks congress will take some action in the Cuban matter when it meets again. Anyway, he says, members in the western states are being instructed to secure the passage of measures of relief for the patriots.

"Reports from Cuba," he says, "are all decorated by the Spaniards, so that it is impossible to judge correctly of the exact condition of affairs." In his opinion, however, the patriots are making headway.

Dispatches From Havana.

HAVANA, Oct. 21.—Lieutenant Colonel Bush, with 150 infantry and 15 mounted troops, fought the insurgents at Chumita plantation. The insurgents fled, but the cavalry overtook them at San Vicente, killing three and wounding five of them.

The bridge at Marrero, province of Santa Clara, has been partially blown up with dynamite by the insurgents. At Guama, in the district of Trinidad, the insurgents have hanged three men who formerly acted as guides in the last war.

Advices to Madrid.

MADRID, Oct. 21.—Senor Canovas del Castillo, minister of foreign affairs, is quoted as saying that it is impossible that Spain should come to terms with the Cuban insurgents.

Advices received here from Cuba say that Colonel Oliver's column defeated 600 insurgents in the district of Los Remedios, and 30 of the insurgents were killed.

DURANT'S LAST HOPE.

His Attorneys Still Expect to Implicate Pastor George Gibson.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—The attorneys for the defense in the Durant case are still figuring on the possibility of the Rev. George Gibson being implicated in the murder of Blanche Lamont. They make no direct accusations against the minister, nor do they connect his name with the church crime. They merely say his handwriting is strikingly similar to that on the paper wrapper which inclosed Blanche Lamont's rings.

The defense intends to make the most of the alleged similarity of Dr. Gibson's writing and that on the wrapper. They will put no handwriting experts on the stand to swear that Dr. Gibson's handwriting is identical to that on the wrapper sent to Mrs. Noble, but the significance of the similarity will be enlarged upon in the arguments of the defense. Attorneys Dickinson and Deaprey know all about the peculiarities of the handwriting of Rev. George Gibson. They have been in possession of specimens of his penmanship for months, and have not failed during that time to study it carefully. General Dickinson, who is greatly interested in deciphering the characteristics of the minister's writing, spent several hours with G. W. Monteith, at the city hall, examining specimens. Mr. Monteith considers himself a handwriting expert and gave the penmanship of Durant, as well as that of Rev. Gibson, careful scrutiny. The examination was conducted with the aid of a powerful magnifying glass. At the conclusion of the investigation Monteith gave it as his opinion that the writing on the wrapper was identical with the specimens of Dr. Gibson's penmanship. Monteith will prepare a report of his examination of the specimens and turn it over to the defense.

Satisfied With Gas.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Mrs. Jennie Boffort, 53 years old, who lived at 187 East One Hundred and Fourth street, committed suicide by placing a tube on the gas jet and the other end in her mouth, and turning on the gas. She lived with her daughter, who is a stenographer. She left a note stating that she did not want to be a burden on her child. She had been dead several hours when found.

DEEDS OF A MADMAN

Chicago Police Defied For Seventeen Hours.

SHOOTING IN ALL DIRECTIONS.

One Hundred and Fifty Shot Fired From the Madman's Rifle and Revolver—No One Injured, but a Number of People Had Narrow Escapes—Burned Sulphur Finally Overcame the Madman.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Armed with a Winchester rifle and a revolver, a madman defied the police for hours yesterday at 35 Woodland Park, in one of the most aristocratic residence districts of the city. Barriaded and locked in a second story room commanding a complete view of the park, the lunatic splintered doors, shattered window panes and tore holes in the plaster of the room with bullets from his rifle, while he shouted defiance to the police and others attracted to the scene.

The insane man was G. S. Merwin of the firm of Rogers, Brown & Company, pig iron dealers.

After 17 hours of effort the police, by strategy, surprise and overcame the madman. Although he had fired 140 shots from his rifle and revolver, Merwin injured no one, but a number of people had narrow escapes.

After every other attempt to capture the insane man before he should kill some one or injure himself had failed, sulphur was burned in the furnace. All the registers were closed excepting the one in the room occupied by Merwin. In an hour after the sulphur fire was started Merwin, partly overcome by the fumes, laid down on his bed and was secured with but feeble resistance.

The aristocratic circle of Woodland Park was greatly excited in the morning when it became known that Merwin had suddenly gone mad, driven his wife in terror from their home and was roaming through the house, armed with a revolver and a rifle. Woodland Park is fringed with elegant residences occupied by families of wealth and culture and the park grounds serve as a beautiful lawn for all who live within the enclosure.

Mr. Merwin, Saturday afternoon, attended a concert at the Auditorium. Mrs. Merwin was ill and did not go. When Mr. Merwin returned home early in the evening, he complained of a pain in his head. As the evening wore on his headache grew worse. He applied such remedies as were at hand, but they did not relieve him and in the middle of the night he suddenly sprang from the bed and seizing his rifle, chased his wife to the kitchen. Throwing up a window, the terrified woman leaped to the ground, 10 feet below, and ran to the residence of Abram Baldwin, where she was cared for.

The police were notified and three men were sent to the Merwin residence. As they tried to enter through a rear window, several shots were fired at them, calling them burglars and saying he would kill the first man coming up the stairs. Friends of Merwin were sent for and tried to reason with him but it was useless.

He fired shots at the neighboring houses, breaking windows and causing the inmates to take refuge in the rear rooms. One or two bicyclists passing by were fired at, but Merwin's aim was bad and they escaped with a bad scare. The police obtained chloroform and squirted into the room with a syringe through the keyhole, but Merwin was shrewd and threw up the windows, thereby neutralizing it. Finally, at about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, sulphur was procured and placed in the furnace as stated above and Merwin having closed the windows again, he was soon overcome.

The unfortunate man was dressed and taken to the detention hospital.

Merwin was 35 years old. He came to Chicago five years ago from New Haven, where he was reared. Three years ago while in the iron range in the Tennessee mountains Merwin was kicked in the head by a horse and to the consequent brain injury his present condition is ascribed. He was married a year and a half ago to a prominent young lady of New Haven, and is a member of the Union League and several other prominent clubs.

THEIR USUAL FATE.

A Colored Pencemaker Shot Through the Heart by a White Man.

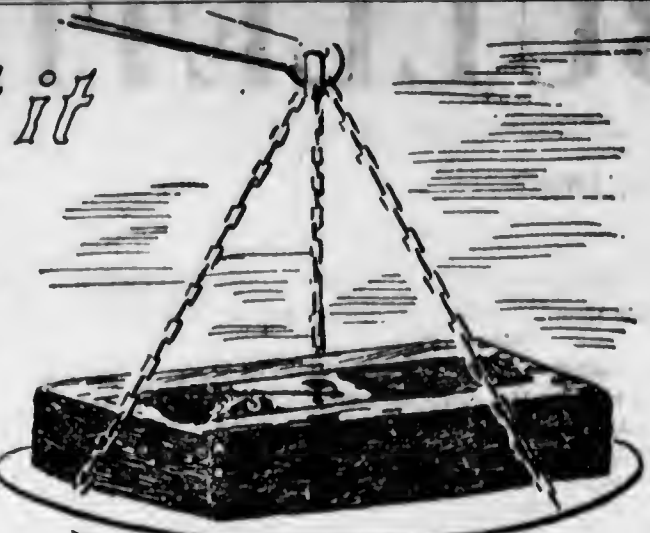

PADUCAH, Ky., Oct. 21.—Jesse Moss, colored, who operated a "blind tiger" at Mayfield, Ky., was shot and instantly killed Saturday at that city, by Charles Bollin, a young white man. Two men named Carter and Whitte were fighting on the premises of Moss, and were encouraged by Bollin.

Moss was ordered by Bollin not to interfere, but he jumped between them and stopped the fight. He then ordered Bollin out of the place and Bollin dared him to come outside. He went outside and crossed the road, and Bollin drew his pistol and fired, the ball piercing the heart of Moss. The murderer jumped on a horse and escaped.

Lake Disaster.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Oct. 21.—It has just been found out that a schooner, which went ashore between Campbell's Point and Henderson Harbor Saturday afternoon is the Mystic Star from Detroit to Ogdensburg, loaded with corn. The lifesaving crew at Sandy Creek was not notified until Sunday morning. It was found, however, that the crew of the schooner were safe, having remained in the rigging all night. The hull of the Mystic Star is completely submerged and she lies in a dangerous position.

The Louisville Post's campaign liar is making another swing around the circle in Eastern Kentucky.

COLONEL BRADLEY says he spoke to 18,000 people in four days last week,—at Vanceburg, Ashland, Prestonburg and Louis. The Public Ledger says he spoke to 16,000 at Ashland. That leaves rather slim crowds for the other three places.
We'll know better how to judge these crowds after the election.

GENERAL BUCKNER in a speech at Louisville last Friday night said, "As for myself, I prefer Mr. Hardin to Colonel Bradley as a man and as a Democrat, and shall put the sign under the rooster on November 5th." The "Sage of Glen Lily" is a true-blue Democrat, and can always be relied upon to help out in every fight.

OVER in Ohio Republicans distributed a circular last week that proved a boomerang. It purported to show the relative price of wool in the past five years.
When the discovery was made that wool showed higher under the Wilson bill than it did under the McKinley tariff a rush was made to gather them in and now none can be secured.

THE CAMPAIGN.

Breckinridge Speaks at Louisville.
Hardin at Hindman—Rhea's
Hot Shot.

LOUISVILLE, October 17.—Hon. W. C.
P. Breckinridge had a reception at Phoenix Hill Hall to-night that would have done credit to his palmy days of power.
The Mayor of the city presided, and prominent State and city politicians sat with him on the stage, while a crowd of 3,500 to 4,000 people struggled for a chance to hear the silver-tongued orator.
He made an able and logical speech, not over an hour long, and admirably calculated to soothe party dissensions and win support to the State and county ticket.

HINDMAN, Ky., Oct. 17.—General P.
Wat Hardin, Democratic nominee for Governor, spoke to-day at the court house to the largest crowd ever collected in this vicinity. The best of order prevailed from beginning to end, and there is no doubt but what he has made many converts to the cause of Democracy. The people here care little for the financial differences in the Democratic party, and declare they will vote it straight every time. Three fourths of the voters in this county are Democratic.

SOMERSET, Ky., Oct. 17.—Hon. J. S.
Rhea to-day addressed the largest political gathering held at this place for a long time. The court house was packed for over two hours, and Rhea scored a number of hard hits against Bradley.
The Democracy of this county expect to greatly reduce the Republican majority.
Rhea showed up the inconsistency of Bradley's appeal to the "old soldier" and G. A. R. vote when he worked against Colonel Silas Adams, an old veteran, in his race for Congress in this district against David G. Colson, who was not a soldier, and how Bradley voted for a negro against a G. A. R. man in his own county.

THE REPUBLICAN NOMINEE.

Milton Johnson, the Lawyer, Named For Representative at Saturday's Meeting.

The Republican county mass meeting at the court house Saturday to nominate a candidate for Representative was a rather tame affair.

A gentleman who counted noses, says
there were "thirty-three Republicans, fifteen Democrats and two negroes" present.

Aside from the slim attendance, the meeting was characterized by the absence of any and everything that smacked of enthusiasm.

The meeting was called to order by Chairman Ort, of the County Executive Committee. C. C. Hopper was chosen temporary Secretary.

Before a temporary Chairman had been chosen, 'Squire Forman moved that the temporary organization be made permanent, and Mr. Ort continued to preside as Chairman.

W. W. Gault nominated Milton Johnson for Representative and 'Squire Grigsby nominated C. P. Degman. Mr.
Degman withdrew and moved that Mr.
Johnson's nomination be made unanimous, which was done.

W. W. Gault and 'Squire Forman were appointed to notify Mr. Johnson. They soon appeared and presented Mr. Johnson to the convention. He spoke briefly, accepting the honor and pledging his best services in the interest of the people, if he should be elected.

And the meeting then adjourned.

Mr. Johnson is a young lawyer of this city. He formerly taught school at Mayslick and is an upright and worthy young man.

CINCINNATI TOBACCO MARKET.

Offerings Some Larger the Past Week and the Demand Steady For All Grades.

Says the Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Company:

The offerings of tobacco have been some larger the past week, and, while the greater portion has been of the lower grades, the buyers have been active bidders, and a good, steady demand for all grades prevailed.

The best grades are watched more carefully and prices are better, especially when they have good color, and there are very few rejections on these grades. The 100 lbs. of damaged tobacco that were saved from the fire were sold on Tuesday, and the competition was so great that excellent prices were obtained, and as one shipper remarked it would be a good idea to wet a few more in order to get good prices.

The reports from the country are about the same, and the estimate of 20 per cent. will not be far from the loss by freeze. The general impression prevails that the stocks on hand and the crop that is saved will be sufficient for all purposes, and there will not be any particular advance upon the grounds of shortage.

The new crop will soon be in the market, and some of the manufacturers claim to have a sufficient stock on hand to run them until that time.
Therefore we can hardly expect a much higher market than at present, unless there should be a demand that is not visible at this time.

October on the Chesapeake and Ohio.

The Ohio Valley is a majestic field of colors these October days. No painter on earth might mix these colors in such a heroic form, and the design is beyond all words of description. From Charleston to Cincinnati the picture always exists and the river always shines. There is a tumult of crimson in the miles of forest, a wealth of browns and grays gives beauty to the fields and hillsides and up the valleys the wild grape vines are laden with purple fruit and on the persimmon trees the yellow brown fruit shakes its fat form invitingly to all. There is no dust and the autumn songs that come floating from hill and dale are full of healthfulness.
See the Ohio Valley again before the melancholy days arrive. See it in all its glorious rioting of colors. There is but one way, take that excursion train that goes to the Queen City on October 23rd. At Cincinnati all of the theatres will be brilliantly opened and the list of attractions are the best to be seen. Tickets will be good on regular trains 19 and 15, and returning on all regular trains except 2 and 4, up to and includ-

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed in the Spring, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malaria poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, yield to Electric Bitters. Only fifty cents per bottle at J. James Wood's drug store.

HENRY WORTHINGTON.

A Native of Mason, but for Years One of Covington's Wealthiest Citizens, Passes Away.

[Cincinnati Enquirer.]

Henry Worthington, one of Covington's well-known citizens, died at 8:30 Saturday night at his home, 78 West Fourth street. The deceased was in every respect a self-made man. A millionaire at the time of his death, he began life a poor farmer boy and by his own energy and industry accumulated a vast fortune.

Mr. Worthington was born in Mason County, Kentucky, September 1, 1826, the youngest of fourteen children born to Thomas T. and A. Whippo Worthington, who were among the early settlers of Kentucky, having located in Mason County in 1796.

The deceased, from early boyhood, displayed remarkably good business judgment. He made a success of farming and stock raising, and in 1847 went to Scioto County, Ohio, and for ten years operated the immense stone quarries there with a force of 600 men.

Later he came to Covington and speculated, with the same confidence and shrewd mercantile sense, in leaf tobacco, and became one of the noted men on the Cincinnati markets. He purchased a two-third interest in the Licking Rolling Mill, was made President, and after putting it on a firm foundation retired from active business pursuits. For years, however, he remained President of the Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Company.

In 1853 Mr. Worthington was married to Miss Maria Slack, daughter of Jacob A. Slack, and six children were born to them, three of whom survive—Henry S., Lillie Stewart and Mattie Worthington. Mrs. Worthington died in 1867.

The deceased was a member of the Presbyterian Church, a Democrat, but never allowed his name to be spoken for political office, though often urged to do so. Mr. Worthington had been in very poor health for some years. His death was due to a complication of diseases.

The funeral takes place on Tuesday at 2 p. m. from the family residence. The pallbearers will be J. A. Crawford, of Louisville; D. C. Collins, Charles B. Pearce, (of Maysville), J. D. Hearne, Augustus Haven, George W. Green, Joseph Chambers and Jas. Spillman.

Mr. Worthington leaves many relatives in this county, among them ex-Senator Worthington of this city.

Death claimed one of the county's most estimable women early this morning.

At the hour of 1 o'clock Mrs. Mary L. Parry, wife of ex-Circuit Clerk Ben D. Parry, passed away at the family residence near Helena.

Mrs. Parry was stricken with paralysis about two weeks ago, the attack finally resulting in her death.

Deceased was a daughter of Charles and Sallie (Bacon) Humphreys, and was between sixty-five and seventy years of age. Her life was spent in this county, and she had a wide circle of warm friends who loved and esteemed her for her many noble traits of womanhood. Her husband survives, and she leaves three children, Messrs. Charles and Glenn Parry, of Helena, and Mr. Will Parry, of Kearney, Neb. Deceased was a sister of Mr. R. G. Humphreys, Miss Jane Humphreys and Mrs. Frank Perrie, of this city.

The funeral will occur at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Frank Perrie, of West Fourth street, and will be conducted by Rev. W. W. Hall. The date of the funeral has not been announced yet.

Elder Smith baptized twenty-one persons in Cabin Creek near Bethany Church Wednesday afternoon. He has been holding a two weeks meeting at the old East Fork Church, and so far has forty additions.

Is it not a fact that a prominent Republican politician and office-holder on Cabin Creek, to show his love for the soldier's widow, sneaked to Maysville and actually attached a widow's pension, for an alleged debt said widow's husband owed said office-holder? What will a Democratic pension administration have to say about such violation of law?

Elder White has been holding a meeting at Bethany Church and so far has thirteen additions: four were baptized Sunday, October 13th, in Cabin Creek, and seven at Springdale, in the river, on Thursday, with two yet to be baptized. Our worthy teacher, Miss Cora Barkley, dismissed her school and marched the pupils to the river in honor of the baptism of three of her pupils.

The great honor and courtesies extended the Kentucky editors at the Cotton States Exposition at Atlanta, and the many compliments bestowed on them were deserving, as a glance at the BULLETIN's editorial column will show.

The venerable Thomas A. Williams died at the family residence Thursday night at 8 o'clock, October 17th, of paralysis of the heart, in the eighty-sixth year of his age. He had been in failing health for the past six years and in the last two years, since the demise of his wife whose death occurred at the same hour of the night, he had been gradually declining, both physically and mentally. But he had appeared better than usual in the last few days, and on Monday morning, October 14th, his spirits seemed brighter and his step firmer than usual, and when his daughter-in-law took him his breakfast, he laughingly asked her if she wasn't tired waiting on him, that he was only a trouble, and he prayed the Lord would soon take him away. She replied: "No indeed, it is only a pleasure and comfort to do for you," and left him eating his breakfast. In a short time the family were startled by a noise and dishes rattling, and on rushing in the room found that he had fallen out of his chair against the mantle projections, cutting a severe wound in his head. He was gently laid on his couch and everything that loving hands could do was done until the immediate arrival of the family physician who pronounced the case a stroke of fatal paralysis of the heart and informed the family that the end was near. His speech was inaudible and incoherent, and he suffered untold agonies until welcome death released him of his intense suffering. Deceased was born in Stafford County, Virginia, and came to Kentucky by wagon in the early days with his parents who brought with them forty slaves. His parents died early in life leaving him the care of seven children, of whom he was next to the oldest and was the last survivor. He met with many adversities during his early life, and at one time was entirely broken up by security debts. He was the father of two children, Mrs. James Ensor, of Plumville, and Mr. Robert H. Williams, with whom he lived, who bear the exemplary character of never giving him a cross word or an angry look.

Uncle Tommie, as he was universally called, was a member of the Baptist Church, and looked forward with a bright and cheerful hope to a home beyond the sky. He was honorable and upright in all his dealings, and never refused a helping hand to those in need. He loved his physician dearly who was ever ready to relieve his suffering; the night was never too dark or the snow too deep or the road too icy for the doctor to climb the hill in response to a call, and at the last, although the physician was overcharged by extra calls to loved ones near and dear by kindred ties, he was unceasing in his efforts to relieve his suffering friend. The funeral services at the house Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. Adams, of Lewisburg, were very impressive, earnest and touching. The Scriptural reading from portions of the Book of Job and the 71st and 90th psalms were very affecting. The remains were followed to their last resting place by a large number of relatives and friends whose silent sympathy was more soothing than words. The body was gently laid to rest in the Maysville Cemetery by the side of his beloved wife who sweetly sleeps at the foot of the family monument.

Rest is sweet after the toll is over, Glory is bright after the darkness has passed, Victory is grand for its many conflicts To gain the promise of eternal rest.

His gray hairs and tottering step Were a shining mark of time, Remindful of the shades of life's evening, Impressive of thoughts purer and more sublime

But call not back the dear departed, For in each life some rain must fall, Let not the sorrowing ones forget That God's infinite love is over all.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gundersman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.
